A TREATISE ON WINES, AND OTHER

EARLY AND LATE FORMS, BY C. J.

LONDON: GEORGE BELL & SONS,

MESSRS. BELL'S LIST.

NEW VOLUMES OF THE "EX-LIBRIS" SERIES.

Imperial 16mo. Printed at the Chiswick Press.

ENGLISH BOOK-PLATES, Ancient and Modern. By EGERTON CASTLE, M.A., F.S.A. New Edition, Thoroughly Revised and Much Enlarged, with over 200 Illustrations. 10s. 6d. net.

* In this Edition there are nearly 70 New Illustrations, including 18 New Copper-Plates in place of the 6 contained in the First Edition, which have all been withdrawn.

"It is much to be feared that, unable to make certain which of Mr. Castle's volumes [i.e. the first and second editions] we prefer, and wholly unable to part with either, our choice, and that of many others, will be to split the difference and take both."—Saturday Review.

PRINTERS' MARKS: a Chapter in the History of Typography. By W. ROBERTS, Editor of the "Bookworm" &c. With about 250 Examples. 7s. 6d. net.

"It is no faint praise for such a book as Mr. Roberts has brought forward to point out that its perusal will make many a bibliophile long for a more exhaustive catalogue. As it stands it must remain a rich mine of information."—Saturday Review.

ALBERT DÜRER'S LITTLE PASSION.

Printed from Stereotypes taken from the Original Woodblocks. With Introduction by AUSTIN DOBSON, and Photogravure Portrait of Dürer, 5s. net; also 75 Copies on Large-paper, 15s. net.

[Immediately.]

8 vols. demy 8vo. 81s. 6d. net.

BURTON'S ANATOMY of MELAN-

CHOLY. Edited by the Rev. A. R. SHILLETO, M.A. With an Introduction by A. H. BULLEN, Portrait, and Full Index. Bound in Irish linen, with Design by Gleeson White.

Also a LARGE-PAPER EDITION of 110 Copies on Hand-made Paper 4to. £3 3s. net.

* In this Edition for the first time the Quotations have been verified throughout, and References given where wanting, and the Text and Notes have been carefully revised.

"Admirers of Burton's 'Anatomy' can hardly hope for a better edition."—Morning Post.

"This is a long way in advance, from the critical point of view, of any edition of the 'Anatomy' yet published; while it has an equal advantage of all its predecessors in beauty. The print and paper are extremely good; and the binding, designed by Mr. Gleeson White, deserves the good and misused word 'elegant.'"—Mr. GEORGE SAINTSBURY, in the St. James's Gazette.

"As we look through its quaint and delightful pages, we scarcely know whose reading and erudition inspire us with the greater astonishment and awe, that of Democritus, junior, or that of Mr. Shilleto..... Mr. Bullen has supplied an excellent introduction, which not only contains a biographical sketch, but also gives a masterly summary of the whole work, as well as a thoughtful and well-balanced estimate of it as a literary production..... The binding is neat and substantial, the paper excellent, and the print, though not large, beautifully clear. In short, everything that could be appears to have been done to make this in every respect the best edition yet given to the public of the 'Anatomy of Melancholy.'"—Glasgow Herald.

Crown 8vo. 6s.

A TREATISE ON WINES: their Origin,

Nature, and Varieties, with Practical Directions for Viticulture and Vinification. By J. L. W. THUDICHUM, M.D., F.R.C.P. (Lond.) Illustrated.

"The book, popular and readable though it is, is written with a care, learning, and fulness such as one seldom meets with in books of this kind written in any other language than the German, and any one interested in the subject may be recommended to read the work, as certain to find in it much interesting and instructive matter on all manner of Wines."—Scotsman.

Fep. 8vo. 3s. 6d. net.

EARLY and LATE POEMS. By C. J. RIETHMÜLLER.

"They are not in the fashion of the present day, but can be read with more pleasure than many far more pretentious verses."—Guardian.

"They are musical, healthy in thought, elevated in tone."—Birmingham Gazette.

MR. WM. HEINEMANN'S PUBLICATIONS.

"This is beyond doubt the finest illustrated book of the year."—BOOKMAN.

REMBRANDT:

HIS LIFE, HIS WORK, AND HIS TIME.

By ÉMILE MICHEL.

Translated by FLORENCE SIMMONDS. Edited and Prefaced by FREDERICK WEDMORE.

In Two Volumes 4to., containing Sixty-seven Photogravures and Reproductions in Colour of Paintings and Chalk Drawings, and Two Hundred and Fifty Illustrations in the Text, £2 2s. net.

Also an EDITION DE LUXE on Japanese vellum, limited to One Hundred and Fifty numbered Copies for England, with duplicates of the Photogravures on India paper, price £10 10s. net. (Only a few Copies remain.)

An Illustrated Prospectus may be had on application.

THE TIMES.—"This very sumptuous and beautiful book has long been expected by all students of Rembrandt, for M. Emile Michel, the chief French authority on the Dutch School of Painting, has been known to be engaged upon it for many years. . . . Merely to look through the reproductions in M. Michel's book is enough to explain the passionate eagerness with which modern collectors carry on their search after Rembrandt's drawings, and the great prices which are paid for them."

THE WORLD.—"All lovers of art should be grateful to Mr. Heinemann for publishing so splendid a work as the translation of M. Michel's Rembrandt, which, in all the magnificence of two profusely illustrated volumes, now lies before us. . . . These two volumes should certainly find a place on the bookshelves of every one who has the smallest pretensions to being an art lover, for no such complete and comprehensive work on one of the greatest painters of all time has ever before been given to the world."

By Mrs. CASHEL HOEY.

2 vols. 8vo. with Portraits, 25s. [At all Libraries.]

THE TIMES.—"M. Gaulot's work tells with new and authentic details, the romantic story of Count Fersen's devotion to Marie Antoinette, of his share in the celebrated Flight to Varennes, and in many other well-known episodes of the unhappy Queen's life."

THE ROMANCE OF AN EMPRESS.

CATHERINE II. of RUSSIA.

From the French of R. WALISZEWSKI.

2 vols. 8vo. with Portraits, 25s. [At all Libraries.]

THE TIMES.—"This book is based in a great measure on the confessions of the Empress herself; it gives striking pictures of the condition of the contemporary Russia which she did so much to mould as well as to expand. . . . Few stories in history are more romantic than that of Catherine II. of Russia, with its mysterious incidents and thrilling episodes; few characters present more curious problems."

In 3 vols. At all Libraries.

[January 10.]

A COMEDY OF MASKS. By ERNEST DOWSON and ARTHUR MOORE. 3 vols.

[At all Libraries.]

"This book will compel attention by its masterly knowledge of men and things. . . . The character-painting is done with a far finer brush than that of the average writer of fiction, or even of many writers above the average. Of a literary partnership so promising as that begun by this work we hope to hear again, and to hear often."—Saturday Review.

THE HOYDEN. By Mrs. HUNGERFORD, Author of "Molly Bawn." 3 vols.
